"Post Lockdown, we have had to make some fairly significant changes to the way we do things. Hopefully these changes won't be around forever, & as time goes by, we are confident that we can start to get back to how things were before."

"All of us at the Admiral Nelson are eternally grateful, not only for your support during these difficult times, but also your patience & understanding as we make the changes necessary to keep our staff & customers safe..."

We have revised our menu in order to provide as safe a working environment as possible for our chefs, taken every opportunity to encourage social distancing, provided all of our team with suitable PPE & additional training, all in order to ensure that the pub is as safe as is possible for you to enjoy."

"All we ask is that our customers help us to adhere to government guidelines by following instructions from members of the team at all times & by being considerate to other people visiting the pub"
